for the year 1878,

BY

J. D. SANDFORD, Esq., M. A., BARRISTER AT LAW,
Judicial Commissioner of Mysore.

(WITH THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER'S REVIEW THEREON.)

XIII B-26

Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore, Judicial Department, 19th March 1879.

Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice in Mysore for the year 1878.

REVIEW BY THE CHIEF COMMR. No. 2468—461 J., DATED 19TH JUNE 1879

The number of offences reported as was anticipated shews a very great decrease upon the abnormal proportions of 1877, the 16,128 cases being nearly on a par with the number reported in 1876. It is further satisfactory to notice how great the decrease has been in grave offences such as dacoity and robbery, the numbers being 549 and 311 for 1877 and 215 and 166 for 1878. Still the number of cases of this description is sufficiently high to cause anxiety and especially in the Nundydroog Division. In 1875 there were but 41 dacoities and 57 robberies reported; it is very evident therefore that considerable improvement is required before that security for life and property which existed before the late famine can be restored.

2. With fewer cases to dispose of, the courts were able, as was to be expected, to shew a much more satisfactory pending file than at the end of 1877, and there is an improvement in the detention of witnesses, few having been detained beyond three days, but although 5·65 days average duration of trials is not high, it would have been satisfactory to have found the courts able to decrease this, and the Chief Commissioner regrets to observe that in one Magistrate's Court the average duration is as much as 11¼ days. The number of persons brought to trial is stated in para 12 of the report to have been 30,132, but in the table given in para 13 the number is 31,631, the reason of this discrepancy should have been explained.

3. As remarked by the Judicial Commissioner in his 16th para, the low percentage of convictions is probably due to hasty entertainment of cases which will not bear investigation. It is contemplated to introduce a modification in the constitution of the subordinate magistracy which it is hoped will raise its status and improve efficiency.

4. In the punishments awarded it is noteworthy that whipping has been administered in 1,660 cases which is a considerable decrease upon the 4,196 cases of 1877. In the matter of imposition and realization of fines, the Chief Commissioner regrets to observe that the report is far from satisfactory. Only 46 per cent of the fines imposed during the year has been recovered and the recoveries of fines imposed in previous years is altogether insignificant. There is thus a large and ever increasing balance of unrecovered fines. This is not as it should be, and it is feared that both injudicious imposition of fines, impossible to levy, by the Courts, and laxity in execution by the Police contribute to this unsatisfactory result. The special attention of Magistrates and Police will be invited to this subject; and the Chief Commissioner trusts that future years will exhibit a marked improvement.

5. The statistics of appeal are worthy of note, for out of about 12,000 persons convicted by 2nd and 3rd Class Magistrates only 478 appealed, while out of about 1,000 persons convicted by Sessions Courts and Magistrates exercising enhanced powers under section 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 569 appealed to the Judicial Commissioner, but of the latter only 11 per cent succeeded in obtaining a reversal of sentence to 54 per cent of the former. It appears therefore that against heavy sentences appeal is resorted to very largely whether there is any chance of success or not, but on the other hand the light sentences of the Taluk Magistrates are often submitted to when known to be unmerited.

W. J. CUNINGHAM,
Secretary.

To—The Judicial Commissioner in Mysore.

ANNUAL REPORT ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE BY THE JUDICIAL COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE, FOR THE YEAR 1878.

I have the honor to forward the Annual Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice in the Province of Mysore for the year 1878, together with the usual Statistical Returns Nos. 1 to 5 and No. 11.

2. Offences reported.—The following table shows the number of offences under each class reported during the year as compared with similar results for the preceding year:—

Name of Division.		I. Against the State, the Public and Justice.	II. Against the Person.	III. Against Property.	IV. Other Offences under Penal Code and Breaches of Special Laws.	Total.
Ashtagram	1877 ...	376	1,617	3,153	187	5,333

	1878 ..	989	4,386	8,927	1,826	16,128

3. The total number of offences reported is shewn to be 16,128, which is a decrease of 8,695 from the number for the preceding year. The decrease was general under all heads and though not more than was to be expected is satisfactory.

4. The falling off was most remarkable in the Nagar Division, where the figures shew a decrease of 79·2 per cent as compared with 53 per cent in the Nundydroog Division, and 35·3 per cent in the Ashtagram Division. This is attributable to the fact of the recent famine which extended into the year 1878, having gradually disappeared, and the condition of the people having improved as the year advanced.

5. Heinous Offences.—This is further illustrated by the figures in the subjoined table which shews the number of heinous offences reported and the number of persons convicted of them during the past and previous years in the several Divisions of the Province:—

		Ashtagram.		Nundydroog.		Nagar.		Total.

	1878	1,247	1,205	3,184	3,893	896	1,032	5,327	6,130

6. The increase in the number of offences committed by public servants in the Nundydroog and Nagar Divisions is anything but creditable to the public service of this Province.

7. The offence of giving false evidence or the number of cases noticed by the Courts has increased in the Nundydroog and Ashtagram Divisions.

8. In the Ashtagram Division there were 24 murders, 64 robberies and 172 cattle thefts reported as compared with 15, 35 and 112 respectively in the previous year.

9. No reason is assigned for the increase in cases of murder which occurred chiefly in the Mysore District. This should have been noted and attempted to be explained by the District Magistrate.

10. The decrease in the number of offences of "Dacoity," "Robbery," "House-breaking" and "Theft" is considerable, and is to be attributed to the gradual falling off in the price of provisions since the famine rates of the preceding year.

11. Total Number of Cases tried.—In all, 16,089 cases were tried by the Magisterial and 417 by the Sessions Courts as compared with 22,662 and 386 cases respectively in 1877.

12. Total Number of Persons tried.—The total number of persons brought to trial was 30,132, being 20,032 persons less than in the previous year.

13. About 90 per cent of this decrease was in the number of persons arrested by the Police which proves the decrease to have principally occurred in the number of heinous offences, that is, cases cognizable by the Police.

14. The manner in which these persons were dealt with in the several classes of Courts is shewn below :—

Class of Court.	Cases tried.	Number of persons brought to trial.	Discharged without trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted	Committed.	Transferred, died or escaped.	Pending.	Average duration.	Percentage of convictions to the number tried

Total.. ..	16,506	31,631	3,975	8,888	16,995	1,499	103	171	5·65	56·7

15. Percentage of Convictions to the Number tried.—The percentage of convictions to the number of persons actually put on trial was 56·7, being about 6·3 less than in the year before.

16. This low percentage is partly due to the large number of discharges and acquittals in the Courts of the Taluk Magistrates, some of whom are probably hasty in entertaining complaints and issuing processes; I have proposed that the criminal powers of the Taluk Sheristadars should be withdrawn.

17. The percentage of convictions in the Courts of the Sar-Amin and Town and Cantonment Magistrate is high. Probably offences against Municipal Rules contributed to the large proportion of convictions in these Courts.

18. Trials by District Magistrates exercising Enhanced Powers under Section 36 of the C. P. Code.—The work of each of the Deputy Commissioners exercising enhanced powers under section 36 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is compared in the subjoined statement :—

Deputy Commissioners of—	Number of persons brought to trial.		Persons acquitted or discharged.		Referred, died, &c.		Convicted.		Pending.

19. Trials by Sessions Judges.—The results of sessions trials are given below :—

Nundydroog	1877 ..	1,360	269	751	340

20. The Sessions Judge of Ashtagram, I am glad to notice, was able to hold a special sessions for the Mysore District in December last, which largely reduced the number of pending cases at the close of the year.

21 Nundydroog Sessions Cases tried by the Judicial Commissioner.—The Judicial Commissioner transferred 17 cases involving 29 prisoners from the file of the Nundydroog Sessions Court to that of his Court in December last in order to relieve the Sessions Judge. In 11 of these cases 14 prisoners were prosecuted to conviction, and in the remaining 6 cases the prisoners were acquitted.

22. Assessors.—The Sessions Judges were generally aided by 2 or 3 Assessors; the number of cases in which they differed from their verdict was 45 as against 48 in 1877, and the number of cases in which they agreed was 319.

23. European British Subjects.—Thirty-nine European British Subjects, being 16 less than in 1877, were charged in 37 cases during the year all before the Town and Cantonment Magistrate of Bangalore, of whom one was committed to the Nundydroog Sessions Court, where he was convicted and sentenced on the charge of forgery for the purpose of cheating to 3 months' imprisonment in the Juvenile Reformatory and to a fine of Rs. 30, twenty others were convicted in the Magistrate's Court, and the rest acquitted or discharged.

24. Pending Cases.—The number of cases and persons awaiting trial on the last day of the year was as follows :—

Divisions.	Cases.	Persons.				Number of cases over one month.
		In Custody.	On Bail.	On Recognizance.	Total.
Ashtagram	22	33	23	...	56	...
Nundydroog	42	49	22	8	79	11
Nagar	19	22	6	8	36	4
Total.....	83	104	51	16	171	15
At the end of 1877.....	332	1,033	91	34	1,158	116

25. Excluding sessions prisoners only 50 persons were in custody awaiting trials at the end of the year. This is satisfactory, and the files generally were in good order at the close of 1878, and shew a vast improvement as compared with the similar results for 1877.

26. Punishments.—The following table exhibits the number and nature of punishments inflicted during the years 1877 and 1878:—

Number of Persons sentenced to—		1877.	1878.
Death		65	46
Transportation ...	For life	80	62
	For a term	49	38
Imprisonment ...	Rigorous (with solitary confinement ...	39	146
	Rigorous (without do ...	12,235	5,645
	Simple	1,433	606
Fine	With imprisonment	5,555	2,406
	Without do	7,030	6,245
Whipping	In addition to other punishment	208	128
	In lieu of do	3,958	1,532
Furnish	Security of the peace	...	7
	Recognizance	2	3
	Security for good behaviour	100	129
Forfeiture of property		...	3

27. From the above it will be seen that there was a decrease under all heads of punishments except sentences of solitary confinement which have increased from 39 in 1877 to 146 in the year under review, and in the number of persons ordered to find security or give recognizance

28. The power of awarding solitary confinement might be used more frequently in regard to habitual offenders who are generally punished too lightly. This is a matter which should be carefully watched.

29. The Commissioner of Ashtagram states that "no cases of security to keep peace, nor of local nuisance, of maintenance, nor possession under the Criminal Procedure Code, have occurred either in 1878 or 1877." It is strange that no use was made of the provisions of the Code in regard to the abatement of nuisances. Probably some less regular course was pursued.

30. There were 1,660 sentences of whipping as compared with 4,196 in the previous year. Two hundred and eighty-one persons were ordered to be whipped with 10 stripes and under, 693 persons with 20 stripes and under, and 686 with 30 stripes and under.

31. Fines.—The total number of persons fined was 8,651 and the total amount Rs. 1,09,798—13—9 as compared with 12,585 persons and Rs. 1,13,191—4—7 in the preceding year.

32. But the average amount of fine was heavier than in the year before, being about Rs. 12—11—1 as compared with Rs. 9.

33. Six persons as against 10 in 1877 were fined in sums between Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000, and 4 persons as against 1 over Rs. 1,000.

34. The annexed table exhibits the amount of fines imposed, realized and outstanding in the several Divisions of the Province:—

Fines	Ashtagram.	Nundydroog.	Nagar.	Total
Outstanding balance of previous years ...	22,351 12 7	59,058 9 8	42,931 14 2	1,24,342 4 5
Imposed during the year ...	20,202 13 0	48,715 1 6	40,880 15 3	1,09,798 13 9
Realized — Out of balance of previous years	2,098 0 5	3,484 13 8	2,560 1 7	8,142 15 8
Realized — Out of amount imposed in 1878	12,148 4 1	20,779 10 2	16,520 7 3	49,448 5 6
Struck off being more than 6 years' standing	5,134 15 4	7,900 13 5	1,697 10 11	14,733 7 8
Remitted on appeal	503 11 1	5,677 0 0	1,128 3 10	7,308 14 11
Balance unrealized at the end of the year.	22,669 10 8	69,931 5 11	61,906 5 10	1,54,507 6 5

35. Out of the total amount of fines imposed during the year, Rs. 49,448—5—6 were realized, being about the same percentage as in 1877, namely 46, and out of the unrealized balances of previous years, only Rs. 8,142—15—8 or 6·5 per cent were collected.

36. The percentage is not so high as it should be.

37. The courts should be careful to apportion fines so far as may be to the means of the offender. Fines impossible of realization should not be imposed.

38. Compensation to injured parties.—In all Rs. 7,035—5—8 were paid as compensation to injured parties, as compared with Rs. 7,383—12—3 in the previous year.

39. Compensation to accused persons in frivolous cases.—Compensation awarded to accused persons in frivolous and vexatious complaints amounted only to Rs. 977-15-0, being Rs. 458-3-0 less than in 1877. The provisions of the Code might be made more use of in this respect, and also in awarding compensation to injured persons where the prosecution is successful.

40. Court Fees awarded under Section 31 of Court Fees Act.—Rs. 539—12—2 as against Rs. 686—8—0 in the preceding year were ordered to be repaid to complainants, under section 31 of the Court Fees Act.

41. Large amounts payable as compensation were left unpaid at the end of the year. The attention of the subordinate courts has been drawn to the desirability of more ready payment of these sums and to the repayment of fees under the Court Fees Act.

42. Witnesses examined.—The total number of witnesses examined was 51,081, being 19,627 less than in 1877. This decrease is due to the large decrease in the number of cases tried during the year.

43. The subjoined table shews the number of witnesses examined in the several Divisions as compared with the numbers in 1877:—

Divisions.		Number of witnesses examined and discharged
		On the 1st day.	2nd day.	3rd day.	4th day.	After the 4th day.	Total.
Ashtagram	1877	18,117	1,414	145	41	31	20,048
	1878	13,577	1,109	127	39	29	14,881
Nundydroog	1877	28,028	3,744	603	153	168	33,296
	1878	22,453	1,885	455	117	116	25,026
Nagar	1877	13,271	2,665	547	244	587	17,314

	1878	45,593	4,162	798	254	274	51,081

44. 98·96 per cent of the witnesses were discharged before the 3rd day. But there is still room for very great improvement in this matter of the detention of witnesses.

45. Average Duration of Cases tried.—The average duration of cases disposed of was nearly the same as in the previous year, namely 5·65 days for the whole Province which is sufficiently short. It varied from 1 to 11 days in the Magisterial Courts, and was 34·65 days in the Sessions Courts; the duration in the latter being of course calculated from the date of entertainment.

Criminal Appeals.

46. The number of criminal appeals received in the Magisterial Courts was 225 and in the Sessions Courts 155, as compared with 264 and 89 respectively in the previous year.

47. Disposal of Appeals.—The following table exhibits the Courts, and the manner in which appeals were disposed of, including the 8 appeals which were pending at the commencement of the year :—

	Total No. for Disposal.		Appeals rejected or Sentences confirmed.		Sentences modified.		Sentences reversed or Proceedings quashed.		Remanded or referred.		Pending
	Cases.	Persons.	Cases.	Persons.	Cases.	Persons.	Cases.	Persons.	Cases.	Persons	Cases	Persons

.Total...	388	689	215	321	43	68	114	277	6	9	10	14

48. Two hundred and seventy-seven persons or about 40 per cent of those who appealed as compared with 32·7 per cent in the preceding year, succeeded in obtaining the original sentences reversed or the proceedings quashed.

49 In one case which occurred in the Nundydroog Division was the sentence enhanced on appeal. The grounds of enhancement have not been stated in the report as they should have been.

50. The result of appeals is less favorable to the subordinate magistracy than in the year 1877.

51. Average Duration of Appeals.—The business of the appellate courts was disposed of with sufficient promptness, the average duration in the Magisterial Courts being 14 days and in the Sessions Courts 23 days.

52. Appeals in the Judicial Commissioner's Court.—In the subjoined table is shown the work of the Court of the Judicial Commissioner as a Court of Appeal:—

Appeals from the Divisions of—	Number of Appellants.	No. of Persons whose appeals were rejected.	Sentences			Pending.
			Confirmed.	Modified.	Reversed.
Ashtagram	119	12	76	5	25	1
Nundydroog	322	52	225	18	26	1
Nagar	128	10	85	19	12	2
Total...	569	74	386	42	63	4

53. The number of appellants in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, sitting as a High Court, was 569 in 235 cases, as against 614 in 163 cases in 1877.

54. Sentences enhanced in Appeal.—In three of the cases modified, the original sentences were enhanced. Three of these persons had been sentenced by the Commissioner and Sessions Judge of Nundydroog, and one by the District Magistrate of Shimoga.

55. The sentence in the case of the 1st prisoner was enhanced from 2 years to 7 years' rigorous imprisonment, in that of the 2nd from transportation for life to death, in that of the 3rd from 3 years to 7 years' rigorous imprisonment.

In the 1st case, the prisoner was tried on a charge of dacoity, and the sentence was enhanced as it was clearly proved in evidence that the prisoner carried a deadly weapon, viz., a spear in the commission of the offence.

The prisoner in the 2nd case was charged with murder and the Additional Sessions Judge sentenced him to transportation for life, on the ground that the prisoner was not more than 18 years of age. The sentence was altered by the late Officiating Judicial Commissioner to one of death, as the evidence shewed that the prisoner was perfectly cognizant of the heinousness of the offence, that he apparently took a leading part in the murder and acted throughout with deliberation.

In the last case the sentence was enhanced on the ground that the prisoner used a deadly weapon, viz., a cleaver, in the commission of dacoity, and thereby caused grievous hurt to a public servant who was endeavouring to arrest the dacoits.

56. The number of reversals was small, only 11 per cent. This result may be considered satisfactory.

57. Judicial Commissioner's Court, Revision side.—The work of the Judicial Commissioner's Court as a Court of Revision is shewn in the annexed table :—

	Cases in which the Proceedings were submitted, or called for.	Sentence, rejected or confirmed.	Modified.	Reversed	Quashed.	Remanded.

As compared with the figures of 1877.....	115	46	28	21	15	5

58. The number of persons involved in the above cases was 207.

59. In one case in which the Assistant Commissioner and 2nd Class Magistrate of the Manjarabad Sub-Division fined a woman in the sum of Rs. 100, or in default of payment to suffer 1½ months' rigorous imprisonment for concealment of birth, the sentence was enhanced to 12 months' rigorous imprisonment.

60. Judicial Commissioner as a Court of Reference.—The subjoined table shews the work of the Court of the Judicial Commissioner as a Court of Reference, for the confirmation of capital sentences :—

61. The decrease in the number of capital sentences was due to the improved condition of the people.

62. Two of the 29 prisoners tried by the Judicial Commissioner in the month of December last to relieve the Sessions Judge of Nundydroog from a heavy file, which otherwise would have been left undisposed of at the close of the year, were sentenced to the extreme penalty of the Law, and their cases were taken up by this Court as a Court of Reference and the capital sentences passed upon them were confirmed.

63. In the case of the 7 persons whose sentences are shewn as modified, the sentences of death were commuted to those of transportation for life.

64. The following table shews the amount of criminal miscellaneous work done by each class of Criminal Courts :—
